Toni Townes-Whitley joined the CGI Federal management team in May 2010, and has been responsible for the successful delivery of services to 22 Civilian Agencies within the U.S. Federal Government. As the Business Unit Manager for Civilian Agency Programs (CAP), Ms. Townes-Whitley is responsible for sales, client relationships, P&L and member management for CAP's 1,850+ members across the U.S. and 34 countries internationally. CAP is the largest Federal Business Unit and has a broad portfolio of cloud, Momentum/ERP, consulting and outsourcing solutions. She is a member of the U.S. Executive Management Committee, as well as the Strategic Growth Council, which drives the growth of the U.S. business.

Prior to joining CGI, Ms. Townes-Whitley served as Vice President for Global Public Sector, System Integration and Consulting at Unisys Corporation. In that role, Toni was responsible for strategy, business development and client service for Unisys' public sector consulting, systems integration and application services across the North America, UK, Continental Europe and Asia-Pacific regions. Formerly, she served as Vice President and Managing Partner for Unisys Global Industries in North America where she led a $200M P&L for the financial, transportation, telecommunications and public sector industry groups.

Ms. Townes-Whitley is a recognized leader in the IT market, formerly serving as President of Women in Technology (WIT), which promotes women's advancement in all fields of technology. She currently serves on the Leadership Foundry – enabling Executive women to secure Board Director positions. She has recently been named to the Board of the Northern Virginia Technology Council (NVTC) and is currently the co-Chair for The Women's Center of Northern Virginia Fall Gala. A writer and presenter on topics of IT innovation and transformation, Ms. Townes-Whitley has collaborated with and/or presented to such organizations as Council for Excellence in Government, the Minority Enterprise Executive Council, General Dynamics, MIT, Princeton University, NYU, Working Mother and PINK magazines, and numerous others.

Ms. Townes-Whitley is a former Peace Corps volunteer, serving in central Africa from 1986-1989, and a graduate of Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School. She has received Certifications from Wharton Executive Education, NYU, and the Performance Management Institute.
