

FEMA Individual Assistance

FEMA disaster assistance is intended to meet the basic needs of your household for uninsured or underinsured necessary expenses. FEMA assistance is never provided in the form of a voucher or cash, grants are provided as direct deposit or paper check.

Housing Assistance

Money to help you with expenses for damage that impacted your home, which may include:

- Rental Assistance: Money you can use to rent housing if you are displaced from your home because of the disaster.
- Lodging Expense Reimbursement: Money to reimburse you for emergency lodging expenses, such as hotel or motel stays. This money is only available if you do not receive money for Displacement Assistance, which is detailed below, under Other Needs Assistance.
- Home Repair or Replacement (Homeowners): Money to help you repair or replace your home damaged by the disaster. This may also include money for hazard mitigation measures, which are actions you can take when making repairs that will help reduce the amount of damage to your home in future disasters. The money can also help with pre-existing damage to parts of your home where the disaster caused further damage.
- Accessibility Needs: Money to help survivors with a disability to cover costs to make specific repairs to their home to ensure it is accessible, such as an exterior ramp, grab bars, and a paved path to the home entrance. Repairs can be made when these items are damaged. Improvements can be made when those features were not present prior to the disaster, and they are needed due to a pre-existing disability, or a disability caused by the disaster.
- Privately-owned Roads, Bridges, Docks: Money for survivors whose only access to their home has been damaged by the disaster.
