

22 Morning News, Wilmington, Del. · Saturday, November 8, 1969

Smoother ride up

Patricia Trinch, 14, of the Delaware Department of Transportation, is carried up the steps of the Van Buren Street Bridge after she fell from the walkway during a heavy rain storm. The girl was rescued by officers of Delaware Division and released. She was unharmed.

Gas station owner cited by YMCA

Mont Bryant, who with his elder brother, Chuck, operates a gas station at Front and Washington Sts., last night was cited by the Wilmington YMCA for the alleged sale of alcohol to minors. The citation was issued by the Wilmington YMCA. Bryant was cited for the alleged sale of alcohol to minors. The citation was issued by the Wilmington YMCA.

1st week of month brings 12 holdups

While the chief does not want to see youths entering the city, the police reported a small number of holdups during the first week of the month. The police reported a small number of holdups during the first week of the month. The police reported a small number of holdups during the first week of the month.

Fl. Dix G.I. is guilty of rioting

FL. Dix G.I. is guilty of rioting. The court found the defendant guilty of rioting. The court found the defendant guilty of rioting. The court found the defendant guilty of rioting.

Mother of four sentenced to 1 yr.

ERIC C. RAMBY, 42, of the Delaware Department of Transportation, is sentenced to one year in prison for the alleged sale of alcohol to minors. The court found the defendant guilty of the alleged sale of alcohol to minors.

Elkton taxi control shift is proposed

From the Newark Bureau. The Newark Bureau is proposing a shift in the control of taxis in Elkton. The Newark Bureau is proposing a shift in the control of taxis in Elkton.

Latin-American Center gets building

By ELLEN C. SPANISH. The project was completed in the third month of the year. The project was completed in the third month of the year. The project was completed in the third month of the year.

Use of animals for research hit

The use of animals in research is being hit by a new bill. The use of animals in research is being hit by a new bill. The use of animals in research is being hit by a new bill.

Two gunmen entered night club

Two gunmen entered a night club in Wilmington. The police reported that two gunmen entered a night club in Wilmington. The police reported that two gunmen entered a night club in Wilmington.

Angola by the Bay

Advertisement for Angola by the Bay resort. The private resort community minutes from Rehoboth and the Ocean. Includes a map of the resort area and promotional text.